Each individual signing below certifies that the information provided in this credit application is accurate and complete. I/we hereby authorize National Machine Tool Financial Corporation, your agent, or assigns to obtain business, as well as personal information regarding my/our credit history, via banks, trade references, credit reporting companies and any other extenders of credit for the purpose of reviewing credit worthiness, increasing credit lines on the account (if applicable), taking collection action on the account, and for any other purpose associated with the account as may be required from time to time. I/we by signing below further waive any right or claim that I/we would otherwise have under the Fair Credit Reporting Act in the absence of this continuing consent. The Patriot Act. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

ECOA NOTICE (TO BE RETAINED BY APPLICANT)

Thank you for your business credit application. We will review it carefully and get back to you promptly. If your application for business credit is denied, you have the right to a written statement of the specific reasons for the denial. To obtain that statement, please contact us within 60 days from the date that you are notified of our decision. We will send you a written statement of the reasons for the denial within 30 days of your request for the statement.

NOTICE: The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applications on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has, in good faith, exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection act. The federal agency that administers our compliance with this law is the Federal Trade Commission, Equal Credit Opportunity, Washington, DC 20580.
